FALL SALE

SHERRY WINE & SPIRITS CO., Inc.

Our Century old Cellars

The color picture which you see on the cover was not photographed in the ancient vaults of some Chateau in France, but right here in New York—in the cool underground cellars of Sherry's that, believe it or not, have been in existence for over a century and only recently rediscovered by our associate, Jack Aaron.

The cellars, medieval in character, with handsome stone vaulted arches and cobblestone floors, are the equal of the best we have seen in Europe—because of the 45 foot depth below the earth and the even temperature that is maintained throughout the year. The cover photograph can only capture a small section of these vast cellars, built before the Civil War by a brewery.

The wines and spirits that are being offered in this "Fall Sale" are presently resting in these cellars, ready to offer their delightful qualities to add joy to your Autumn and Holiday living.

NEW YORK'S BEST BUYS

THOUSANDS, not only in Manhattan, but everywhere in New York State, look to Sherry's for the very best in fine wines and spirits and at the lowest possible prices. Though there have been substantial cost increases at the vineyards and distilleries, we have rolled back the prices of many items to reflect our original cost and not what the present market should dictate—a few of our "Best Buys" are listed here—many more can be found in these pages.

Scotch Whiskies

On Sale

New York's Largest Assortment

DOUGLAS "BOARD MEMBERS CHOICE"

EXCITING NEWS FOR SCOTCH DRINKERS! You can maintain a high quality level in your Holiday entertaining by serving one of Scotland's most distinguished whiskies and yet pay the unbelievably low sale price of $4.69. It is not a product of an obscure distillery, but was carefully blended, aged and bottled in Scotland by the 178 Year Old firm of Alexander Sommervail. Candidly, whisky of this age and calibre would be good value at $6.00 or more—at this low sale price, it is a Scotch opportunity not to be ignored.

GLEN ALAN (Imported by S. S. Pierce Co.) 4.99 58.50

No ordinary Scotch this! A fully matured whisky from one of Scotland's finest distilleries and imported by S. S. Pierce Co. It is particularly clean, well balanced and pleasing. Recommended unreservedly to the discriminating Scotch drinker.

HARBOURMASTER NUMBER ONE 5.49 64.87

Since the boyhood days of Robert Burns, when the distinguished company of Whigham, Ferguson & Cunningham built their first cellars flanking the River Ayr, quality has been their constant goal. This fine traditional Scotch Whisky is the remarkable product of a firm with over 190 years experience of bottling and blending for discriminating drinkers throughout the world. Only 300 cases released for the United States.

FORTNUM & MASON'S RED SEAL 5.99 68.50

Only last year Fortnum & Mason celebrated their 250th anniversary—a store that has dominated fashion and taste in London through the centuries. The distinguished Scotch whisky that bears their name reflects this leadership. Exceptionally well balanced, rich in flavour, it is undoubtedly the best value in fine Scotch whisky that prevails anywhere in the New York area.

NEWS —

Popular Scotch whiskies now available in full quarts. Because of some savings in cost and economy in storage space, the trend to full quarts has now moved from American whiskies to include Scotch whiskies.

ENQUIRE ABOUT YOUR FAVORITE BRAND OF SCOTCH.

We have searched long and hard for a pleasing red and white wine to sell under $1.00 the bottle. We know of no more pleasing examples available than the red and white Bordeaux of Boyer Freres.

RED WINES

164 BORDEAUX ROUGE 1955, Boyer Freres

No ordinary regional wine this! Here is an authentic 1955 from Bordeaux's most important firm. Worth much more.

368 CHIANTI, Cimamori (Quart Wicker)

A pleasant red table wine from Tuscany—in the traditional, colorful, wicker bottle at a cost of only 3¢ the fluid ounce.

WHITE WINE

267 BORDEAUX BLANC 1955, Boyer Freres

A distinguished counterpart to the Bordeaux Rouge described above—medium dry, pleasant and full of fruit. From an impeccable shipper.

PINK WINE

450 ROSE DE CARAFE 1957,

A charming pink wine grown not far from Bordeaux. It is the kind of Carafe Rosé you will be enjoying with your lunch at the better inns of southwest France.

Delightful wines of France at temptingly low sale prices. We suggest a mixed case for ONLY $14.50.

RED WINES

487 COTES DU RHONE ROUGE 1955

Here is a beautifully balanced, sound, moderately priced wine that can be drunk everyday with great enthusiasm.

211 BEAUJOLAIS 1957, Montmelas

A pleasing, young example of France's most popular red wine.

WHITE WINES

397 ALSATIAN SYLVANER 1955, Hanhart

A soft, distinguished, relatively light white wine from the cellars of Hanhart.

284 CHATEAU FAYAU 1955 (Cadillac)

From the land that lies between two Bordeaux rivers of Garonne and the Dordogne, comes some of the most full-flavored, medium dry and delightful white wine of the world. Here is one that carries the kind of richness and fruitiness usually associated with Sauternes. An astonishing value.

Don't let the low price of $1.19 deceive you—fine thoroughbreds can be found in this group. You can make up your own assortment of any twelve bottles in this group and enjoy the case price.

RED WINES

179 MEDOC 1955, Boyer Freres

This Medoc was finally chosen after careful comparison among 15 candidates—An authentic, graceful 1955 claret. Ideally suited for drinking, day in and day out.

191 PUISSEGUN ST. EMILION 1955

Well balanced, soft 1955 St. Emilion.

441 SPANISH RIOJA RED 1955

Good Spanish red wine is not easy to come by. This vigorous red, an astonishing discovery of Frank Schoomaker, is entirely remarkable, deserves to sell for almost double the price, and easily competes with the better Clarets of the same year.

WHITE WINES

276 GRAVES 1955, Boyer Freres

A pleasing, relatively dry example of fine white Bordeaux.

442 SPANISH RIOJA WHITE 1955

Discovered in northern Spain—a beautiful, well balanced dry white wine with exceptional character.

BULMER'S HARD CIDER

"Best hard cider encountered in Europe—refreshing flavor, fine fruit, delightful," states James Beard on return from European gastronomic tour. As a thirst-quencher, it has few equals when served straight or over the rocks in a tall glass with a touch of lemon or lime juice added—or, it can be served chilled right through a meal as one might a white wine.

OLD STYLE WHISKEY (A superior blend)

Bottle Case
3.49 40.95

Without a doubt, the best value and the most satisfactory all-purpose whiskey in New York — a consistent favorite, at a saving of 50c the bottle on the regular price. Full quarts, $4.29, $49.95 the case.

OLD J. T. S. BROWN BONDED KENTUCKY BOURBON

4.19 48.75

Old J. T. S. Bonded Kentucky Bourbon is on sale once again during this pre-holiday season — a proud product of a distillery that dates back to 1855. Although the front label reads 6 Years old; we happily report that the Federal Strip Stamp on each bottle in our cellars indicates the true age and reads — "Made Fall 1950 — Bottled Spring 1959" — 8½ Years Old! Beyond doubt the most sensational Bourbon opportunity that exists anywhere in New York State. And for added economy, we suggest full quarts at $5.19 each, $60.25 the case.

JOHNNY REB RARE 12 YEAR OLD

KENTUCKY BOURBON 7.99 94.50

The notorious cry of "Howdy Reb" or "Hello Johnny" across the Civil War battle lines backgrounds the name of this irreplaceable Bourbon — a collector's item embodying all the rich flavor, delicacy, bouquet and soft mellowness of the great, almost forgotten pre-prohibition whiskies. Available in small quantities to those seeking the finest Bourbon on the market. Bourbon of this age and perfection generally sells for $12.50 or more.

RED WINES

253 BEAUJOLAIS 1955, Domaine du Ringuet

Our best-seller among our red wines and for good reason—we quote the review this wine received in the New York Times, January 29th, "then there is a Beaujolais that is all a Beaujolais should be, but alas, seldom in this country—purplish-red, with the fruity aroma and taste of crushed grapes. In our opinion, a true discovery for those who want true Beaujolais at a modest price."

592 BOURGEUIL ROUGE 1958 (Loire)

The sort of wine that Rabelais called 'vin de taffeta'—silky, fragrant, much charm and very light.

203 POMEROL 1955, Boyer Freres

A generous 1955 Pomerol from Bordeaux of much class and depth.

WHITE WINES

474 SWISS NEUCHATEL

Ville Neuchatel

Here is an authentic thoroughbred, estate bottled at a vineyard which is proudly owned and maintained by the City of Neuchatel.

542 MUSCADET 1958, L. Gadais

A dry, delicate white wine from lower Brittany—the proud product of a small producer.

454 ALSATIANRIESLING 1955, Hanhart

From the steep hills of Alsace comes this young, fresh, dry white wine. Rich with charm and bouquet.

PINK WINES

433 ALSATIAN ROSE 1955, Hanhart

Relatively light and pale, captures the flowery bouquet associated with Alsace; intriguing.

396 BONNE AUBERGE ROSE 1957

This sprightly 'vin rose' is typical of the wine served at the excellent 'La Bonne Auberge' restaurant on the Cote d'Azur.

514 ANJOU ROSE CABERNET 1958

Made from the great Cabernet grape. "Fresh, tender"—a charming pink wine.

Delightful young engaging "country wines" from France and Switzerland. Choose any assortment of twelve at the case price of only $17.95.

WHITE WINES

307 POUILLY VINZELLES 1957

Outstanding white wine—green and gold—clean and rich with breed and finesse. Regularly $2.00.

500 MUSCADET, ORFEUILLES, 1958,

No ordinary Muscadet this—from the best vineyard of the Loire. Dry, light and beautifully delicate. Recommended.

503 FENDANT SPATLESE 1957,

Bishop of Sion

One of the most highly regarded dry white wines of Switzerland from a vineyard owned for centuries by the Bishops of Sion. Much breed and charm.

PINK WINE

354 TAVEL 1957, Bellicard

One of the best pink wines grown in the world-famous town of Tavel—amazingly low price for good Tavel in present market.

Fiesta of Italian Wines

$1.49
fifth $16.95
case

Travellers return from Italy and speak glowingly of the charming wines they have encountered. Here are the best of Italy—wines that normally command over $2 the bottle—your choice at $1.49 or a mixed case at $16.95.

RED WINES

625 BAROLO 1952, Tenuta Galarey

A full bodied, sturdy, long lived red wine of Piedmont—great.

482 CHIANTI MACHIAVELLI

A great Chianti from the vineyard where Machiavelli wrote "The Prince".

624 FREISA 1957, Tenuta Galarey

Light, fruity, fine bouquet—produced 40 miles south of Turin.

621 VALPOLICELLA 1955, Cantina Sociale

This lovely red wine, grown near Verona, is, in our opinion, the most charming of Italy.

WHITE WINE

622 SOAVE 1957, Cantine Sociale

In our opinion, this 1957 Soave grown near Verona, is the best single dry white wine of Italy.

PINK WINE

490 CHIARELLO DEL GARDA 1957

An intriguing pink wine grown along the sunny shores of Lake Garda in northern Italy. Delightful.

$1.69
fifth $18.50
case

Alsace, Bordeaux and a Rhone combine here to give you a fine modestly priced selection.

WHITE WINES

476 GEWURZTRAMINER 1955, Hanhart

1955 is a year that flourished in Alsace. Exceptional bouquet.

315 SAUTERNES 1955, Boyer Freres

A magnificent example of Sauternes—rich, full, golden.

PINK WINE

494 PROVENCE ROSE 1957

This delightful pink wine reflects the spirit, color and gaiety of the Cote d'Azur.

The best of Beaujolais — Red, White and Pink — and an extraordinary fine Vine Rose from Chateau Lascombes. Mix any assortment of twelve and enjoy case price.

RED WINE

274 BEAUJOLAIS BROUILLY 1957,

Estate Bottled, Domaine des Tours

Beaujolais at its absolute best — Estate bottled at the best vineyard in the town of Brouilly — won a Grand Award at the Paris Fair as an outstanding example of Beaujolais produced during 1957.

355 BEAUJOLAIS BLANC 1957

Fine dry white wine from the Beaujolais district is rare indeed — here is an intriguing Estate bottled example.

PINK WINES

432 BEAUJOLAIS ROSE 1957,

At the Domaine des Tours, they follow the practice of bottling a small amount of Rose for their personal use. When at the vineyard we tasted it, and persuaded them to send us a small annual shipment. Undoubtedly, pink wine of France at its absolute best.

469 ROSE DE BROUZAC 1957

From Chateau Lascombes, a renowned vineyard in Margaux — exceptional breed and freshness.

Red, white and pink wine — each is a thoroughbred. Mix a case of any 12 at the case price of 24.50.

RED WINES

420 CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE 1955

Estate Bottled, Clos des Felibres

Towering high above the town of Chateauneuf, in the rockiest of soil, is the remarkable Clos des Felibres vineyard. We spent three days in the town comparing the wines, and we are now quite convinced that this is the best example produced in the area. An extraordinary blend of lusciousness and elegance.

WHITE WINES

391 CHARDONNAY DE MARSANNAY 1955

Estate Bottled, Clair-Dau

A Burgundian gem made from the noble Pinot Chardonnay grape by one of the best proprietors of the Cotes de Nuits. Exceptional breed, yet amazingly low priced.

599 POUILLY BLANC FUME 1958,

Estate Bottled, Lucien Marchand

One of the most difficult of all wines to come by because of a large world demand and a small production, is the delicate, dry white wine of Pouilly-sur-Loire. Here is a superb example at a most attractive price.

Here are several outstanding wines of Europe at substantial savings! Choose any assortment of 12 bottles at the case rate of 22.50

RED WINES

242 BEAUJOLAIS BROUILLY 1955

Cuvee Institute de Pasteur

Soft, fruity red wine from one of the best vineyards of the Beaujolais.

342 JULIENAS 1957

The northern-most town in Beaujolais is Julienas and its wines are the prize of gastronomic Lyon.

WHITE WINES

311 VIRE, CLOS DU CHAPITRE, 1955

Occasionally, when one is travelling in the French provinces, one runs across a local wine of quite extraordinary quality and charm. This Vire of Macon is such a wine. Made of the Chardonnay grape as is Pouilly Fuisse, it is dry, fresh, and an engaging white wine.

369 SAVIGNY LES BEAUNE 1955

Estate Bottled, Doudet-Naudin

Considered the pleasantest medium priced Burgundy of the entire Cote d'Or. This 1955 is exceptional.

PINK WINES

462 TAVEL (Maby) 1958,

Soft, fruity, delightful color.

627 ROSE DE MARSANNAY 1957

Estate Bottled, Clair-Dau

This delightful pink wine reflects the spirit, color and gaiety of one of the best vineyards of the Cotes de Nuits. Exceptional breed, yet amazingly low priced.

A SALUTE TO Fortnum & Mason

London, the respected elder of the world shopping centres, claims the tradition and 252nd Anniversary of one of its oldest institutions — the famous Piccadilly firm of Fortnum & Mason. This fine old firm has been a symbol of quality through the reign of twelve sovereigns. We deem it a distinct privilege to bring their fine wines and spirits to the discriminating drinkers of this country.

FORTNUM & MASON RED SEAL SCOTCH

5.99 the bottle

68.50 the case

The balance, harmony, rich flavor and full maturity of this distinguished whisky will delight the most critical Scotch drinker. It easily surpasses in quality many Scotches selling at considerably higher levels.

FORTNUM & MASON FINE CHAMPAGNE COGNAC

6.99 the bottle

80.00 the case

A unique example of delicate dryness, bouquet, and magnificence. An English Market Cognac of true distinction.

THE QUIET BEAUTY of the cellar scene that appears on the cover of this, our 26th Fall Sale, somehow to me, captures the spirit and emotion of the holiday season. All of us here at Sherry's are proud of our cellars, that pre-date the Civil War, and surely match, in dignity, solidity and impressiveness, the best underground wine caves of Europe. It is reassuring to our clientele to know that any of the wines that they may pick from this 'Sale List' will be free of the normal storage risks that wines are exposed to, for they have been quietly maturing in this happy home, right here in New York, 45 feet below the busy sidewalks above. OLD CLARET is one of the great joys that remain to me as I approach my more mature years. The color photograph on Page Four, a still life of an old bottle, a decanter and a glowing candle, will strike a responsive chord in the heart of every wine lover. The picture was originally taken by Percy Hennel, one of England's greatest photographers and appears in the classic book "The Great Wines of France" written by André Simon and published recently by McGraw-Hill. I recommend the book and I recommend the old Clarets that you will find in these pages, particularly the Chateau Margaux 1947 which I consider one of the greatest vinous joys available to man today.

THE HOLIDAY OFFERINGS that we have gathered this year at Sherry's undoubtedly constitute the most important and exciting collection of intriguing wines and spirits of our history—wines and spirits carefully selected to help you, to embark on joyous tasting adventures among the leading vineyards and distilleries of the world. Nor have we ignored the fact that Christmas will soon be upon us—there is a wide range of gift possibilities in our shop this year—a pleasant sign to those seeking more imaginative Christmas ideas... there is an astonish-

Presenting some of the GREAT Rare Red Wines of France

Here are the much sought-after great red wines of Burgundy and Bordeaux, authentic survivors of a previous decade. Commercially they are non-existent and acquiring them is akin to the art collector's search for a Matisse or a Cezanne. Here are classic wines, available only in small quantity, that are true masterpieces — sheer perfection to the fancier of great and old red wine.

Bottle Case

Bottle Case

CHATEAU LYNCH BAGES 1949 2.79 31.50

Astonishing price for an outstanding Claret of a great Pauillac vineyard and magnificent vintage year.

CHATEAU COS d'ESTOURNEL 1945 .. 2.99 34.50

The greatest of the St. Estephe vineyards produced during the fabulous 1945 vintage. Only seven cases. Worth much more.

CHATEAU BRANAIRE DUCRU 1937 3.49 39.75

A great pre-war year—amazing depth, much bouquet, astonishingly low cost.

CHATEAU COS D'ESTOURNEL 1949 3.49 39.75

A classic St. Estephe, rich in bottle age, only 12 irreplaceable cases.

CHATEAU BEYCHEVILLE 1949 3.69 42.75

The most sought-after vineyard in St. Julien. A great 1949.

VOLNAY, POUSSE D'OR, 1949 4.99 57.50

Estate bottled, Chavigne et de Lavorie. An authentic estate bottled survivor of a magnificent Burgundy year.

POMMARD EPENOTS 1947 4.99 57.50

Estate Bottled, Gaumox. A remarkable 1947—perhaps the best Pommard we have ever tasted.

CHATEAU LATOUR 1949 6.49 71.50

Latour reached great heights during the 1949 vintage—a perfect wine for the lover of fine old claret.

CHATEAU MARGAUX 1949 6.49 71.50

Another example of great 1949. Priced well below the market. No longer available in Bordeaux.

CHATEAU LATOUR 1934..... 6.79 74.95

The 1934 clarets are among the greatest of our generation—a beautiful harmony of lightness, bouquet and finesse.

CHATEAUX MARGAUX 1934..... 6.79 74.95

Bordeaux wine experts still speak reverently of Chateau Margaux 1934 as one of the great wines of that outstanding year.

POMMARD, DAMES DE

LA CHARITE, 1934..... 6.99 79.50

Hospice de Beaune

A great 1934 acquired over 20 years ago at the annual Hospice de Beaune auction, it has been resting, untouched, in one of the best private cellars in France until this month. A dramatic Pommard. Sheer perfection.

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC 1949 6.99 79.50

Firm, sturdy and long lived. A great St. Emilion that can be classed as one of the great clarets of our lifetime.

CHATEAU LAFITE

ROTHSCHILD 1949 6.99 79.50

A crowning jewel in any claret cellar.

CHATEAU MOUTON

ROTHSCHILD 1949 6.99 79.50

Another great claret, truly magnificent and irreplaceable.

CHATEAU LATOUR 1947 7.99 92.50

No wines have been more sought after, or achieved greater perfection than thoroughbred claret of the 1947 vintage. Here is one of the noblest.

CHATEAU MARGAUX 1947 7.99 92.50

Another magnificent example among the great 1947 clarets.

"For an extraordinary tasting experience among the great Red Wine of France, we suggest one each of the seventeen wines listed above—" able to many after-uses. You need merely pick your favorite wines and spirits and have them sent in this colorful, charming container for only $2.95 additional (holds up to 12 bottles) . . . and, of course, there are many other intriguing Christmas gift containers such as the traditional basket, the "Drum Cooler," "Le Can-Can," the "Wine Rack," and many, many more.

BROWSING THROUGH OUR CELLARS I was overwhelmed by the large, impressive collection of great Chateau bottled Clarets covering all of the good years of the last two decades . . . I do not think there has been any other time since the war where it has been possible for the Claret lover to obtain so many wonderful Chateau bottled Clarets at prices such as these . . . the sale list starts on Page 5 and goes on and on . . . choose among them and drink outstanding red wine at a cost so low that even a Parisian might envy you . . . the Haut Brion and Mouton Rothschild 1954 are surprising in their grace . . . the Figeac and La Mission Haut Brion 1955 are outstanding . . . all of the 1953s reflect the fruit and warmth of that year, but I particularly single out a 1953 Chateau Carraudes de Lafite Rothschild which, at $2.19, is probably the best value to be found anywhere in New York City . . . and let us not forget the great and irreplaceable First Growth Clarets of such years as 1949 and 1947 . . .

A corner of our Century Old Cellars

I WOULD BE REMISS were I not to exalt the amazing qualities of the 19th Century Madeiras that can be found, in all their historic glory, at Sherry's . . . each of them is an authentic collector's item from a small reserve that has been resting through the decades on the island of Madeira . . . the years available go back far into history, and when one drinks them, he is consuming history-proud products of such years as 1792, 1805, 1818, 1860, 1885 and many more

. . . though the age of these rarities seem almost unbelievable, yet they have completely retained their vigor, richness of taste, magnificent bouquet and depth of character. A 'single bottle' can, in many instances, be a more exciting gift to an appreciative friend than a whole case of a more unusual wine or spirit. As a matter of fact, I can recommend unreservedly that you set aside at least one bottle for your own joyous drinking and for your own holiday dinner.

Each of these Madeiras proudly bears a simple label indicating the year of the vintage and the number of bottles that exist in the world. The back label gives a personal history of the wine and is hand signed by a director of the fine old firm of Blandy. An example of this label, with its individual number written in by hand, appears above.

A BIT OF AMERICANA: Just as France is proud of their rare old Cognacs, so America can be proud of its rare old Bourbons. The classic and most sought-after examples are the pre-prohibition Bourbons that, alas, have now become museum pieces. The closest counterpart of these that we have run across is the extraordinary Johnny Reb 12 Year Old Kentucky Bourbon, so superlative that it can be served as an after-dinner liqueur in a brandy inhaler with the coffee—and yet it presently cost but $7.99 the bottle. At this low price, I can only recommend that you acquire some for yourself and reserve the bottles you may need as an extraordinary Christmas gift to a friend who appreciates rare old Bourbon.

THE VINEYARD NEWS from abroad has been good—because of cloudless skies from mid-June until harvest time, the vineyards of Europe have been gathering grapes, rich in sugar with the promise of a great vintage year in 1959. At the moment, it is appropriate that we open fine old bottles, fill our glasses, and wish well to the new vintage year and hope that it fulfills the promise and acclaim it had already received even before the grapes were picked. We will know more about this next year when we have had some opportunities to taste the wine in barrel. Wine lovers will have to wait until 1962 at the earliest for their first taste of '59 red Bordeaux and probably will have to wait an additional five years until the better ones have properly aged in bottle. All this bodes good for the future. Let us all be grateful for, and enjoy, the great vintage years that are presently available, such as the fine whites of 1958, and the great 1957s, 1955s, 1953s and 1952s—and the authentic survivors of a previous decade—glories like the 1949s, 1947s and 1945s.

SPARKLING HOLIDAY CHEER is exemplified by Champagne. There is the glamorous Dom Perignon 1949 in its classic bottle; the crystal-like bottle holding Cristal Cuvee 1953 of Roederer; the newly arrived 1953 vintage of Bollinger, Moet & Chandon and Mumm; nor should we overlook the dry, beautifully balanced Cuvee Albert Brut of Pommery & Greno, a great Champagne that can hardly be called expensive at only $5.99 the bottle; and, of course, we carry such consistent favorites as Ayala Gold Label 1953, Perrier Jouet, Krug, Lanson, Clicquot, Charles Heidsieck and Taittinger.

and they soon were gone. And now, M. Hine has sent another small shipment just in time for holiday entertaining and holiday gift giving. The handsome label is hand signed by the firm's director and I quote his statement on the label, "Since the early 19th Century, it has been the custom of our family to set aside one or more hogsheads for our own personal use. This custom, faithfully pursued from generation to generation, has yielded us a tiny, but precious reserve, which in our opinion, undoubtedly is the most treasured Cognac obtainable today." It costs $24.75 the bottle, and is more than worth it for those who are seeking the oldest and most remarkable Cognac of all France.

RANDOM OBSERVATIONS: The Beaujolais and Pouilly Fuisse 1958 that Alexis Lichine has shipped us in the "Pot" bottle, are delightful, disarming and just the right size for two (17 oz.)—and they are only $1.49 each! . . . through the years Fortnum & Mason's Red Seal Scotch still remains one of my most beloved whiskies . . . the charm of Pouilly Blanc Fume from Chateau Nozet. 1792 MADEIRA

Europe's Oldest and Most Remarkable Wine

In 1957, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II visited Portugal and to commemorate the event, the entire contents of the cask which held the 1792 Solera was bottled, interrupting a 165 year slumber. We were fortunate in acquiring some of these precious bottles and were amazed by its extraordinary qualities — its full vigor, penetrating bouquet and great depth of flavor. Being relatively dry, it rivals fine old Cognac in scope and interest.

Here is a true collector's item, that soon will be gone—even a single bottle will add its touch of lustre to the most distinguished cellar, historic interest to the holiday dinner party, and heartwarming joy as a unique Christmas gift to an appreciative friend.

LAST MINUTE NEWS: One of the great discoveries of my last year's trip to Europe was the Pear Brandy of Switzerland. I fell in love with the clean, fruity flavor also intrigued by the fact that a giant pear sits quietly in the center of the bottle, adding its eye appeal to the fabulous pear flavor. Incidentally, this feat is accomplished by putting a bottle around the pear bud in the Spring, the pear keeps growing and growing, until it almost fills the bottle — the pear brandy is added, preserving the pear practically forever into the future. The entire crop yielded only 218 bottles of this unique Pear Brandy and I strongly suggest that you reserve some for the most astonishing of Christmas gifts, or for your own holiday pleasure—$14.95—due Dec. 15th.

FINAL THOUGHT: The requests for Christmas catalogs have started to pour in. Ours will reach you during late November, but there is no need to wait. The brochure you are now reading is sufficiently complete for almost anyone on your list. Simply mail us your gift list, the selection for each individual, the gift cards, and leave all details to us. It will be delivered on the date indicated and in the fashion you desire. (If you prefer, we will supply the gift cards and fill them out for you.) This brochure surely provides all that is required for comfortable armchair Christmas shopping...

Rare, Irreplaceable Vintage MADEIRA From the Last Century

We quote from James Beard, one of America's outstanding authorities on wine and food, "The very existence, let alone the sheer perfection of this 1805, is an historic wine event—these 19th Century Madeiras have provided one of the great wine tasting experiences of my life."

When these are gone, the opportunity to taste authentic 19th Century Vintage Madeira of this calibre will be lost forever.

CHAMPAGNE COGNAC

7.50 6.99 80.00

This interesting example of dry, English Market Cognac is particularly relished by Cognac connoisseurs. Great Britain is a nation that takes its Brandy very seriously. Aware of this, the 250 Year Old firm of Fortnum & Mason have acquired some of the best and oldest stocks of Cognac to meet the uncompromising demands of knowing Londoners.

1297 SINGLE CASK UNBLENDED
COGNAC (1929 Vintage)

9.98 9.45 108.00

Here is an Estate-bottled Cognac that was produced during a great vintage year (1929) in the most celebrated part of the Cognac country, "Grand Fine Champagne". It has remained in its unblended state in barrels from 1929 until the present date. Cognac of this calibre is difficult to obtain because no more than a few small growers have the patience and aptitude to put aside, year after year, a distillation of their outstanding vintages.

HINE FAMILY RESERVE

THE MOST REMARKABLE COGNAC OF FRANCE

Since the early 19th century it has been the custom of the Hine Family to set aside the best Cognac produced during a particularly outstanding year for their own future use—ultimately this old precious reserve is served to honored guests on special occasions. For the first time, Francois Hine, managing director of this venerable firm, has consented to part with a few of these treasured bottles—each is numbered and bears a back label relating the unique history of the contents, hand-signed by a Hine director—the entire shipment is less than 300 bottles.

For those who wish to experience a Cognac laid down in the mid-nineteenth century, we know of no better example—particularly suitable as an exciting Christmas gift to an appreciative friend.

We proudly present this choice and large collection of great wines from Bordeaux, Burgundy, the Rhine and Moselle. Each is a top flight expression within its class.

RED WINES

304 CHASSAGNE MONTRACHET ROUGE 1957

A red wine of astonishing class—big, sturdy, and estate bottled by the master grower, C. Ramonet.

343 CHATEAU DE MONTHELIE 1955

The most extraordinary example of medium priced red Burgundy presently available from the Cote d'Or. Estate bottled at a vineyard that is just on the border of the township of Pommard.

263 FLEURIE, LES MORIERES 1957

Just coming into its own. A full flavored red wine that is a favorite among the discriminating of Lyon.

364 HERMITAGE, DES MOINES 1955

In our opinion, the best red wine of the Rhone Valley. Here is the kind of wine that should be laid down and enjoyed as a "truly great bottle" two or three years hence.

259 MOULIN A VENT, BURDELINES 1957

Estate Bottled, Mousset

Grown in northern Beaujolais, it proudly displays the finesse and depth associated with its more northerly neighbors in the Cote d'Or.

WHITE WINES

344 CHABLIS, BUTTEAUX, 1955

Estate Bottled, Robert Monin

An authentic Premier Cru Chablis, Estate bottled by one of the best growers of the area. Dry, clean, and fresh.

337 POUILLY FUISSE, BEAUREGARD,

1957, Estate Bottled, Burrier

The best wines of Pouilly-Fuisse have the dryness and austerity associated only with top flight white Burgundy. Here is a prime example from a prime grower.

395 POUILLY FUISSE, BOUTHIERES 1957

Delightfully fresh and charming, with a lovely bouquet. A remarkable Pouilly grown proudly by M. Dondin.

601 SANCERRE 1958, La Porte (Loire Valley)

1958 yielded a very small crop in Sancerre, but the sort of dry, clean, racy Loire wine that Parisians love.

RED WINES

261 BEAUNE, CLOS DES MOUCHES 1953

Estate Bottled, Duval-Blochet

This remarkable 1953 from one of the best vineyards of the Cote de Beaune is beautifully balanced, full of fruit and vigor.

335 BEAUNE GREVES 1955

Estate Bottled, Moillard

Notable for its finesse and delicate aroma; from the best vineyard of this important wine producing town.

268 CHAMBOLE MUSIGNY, LES CROIX, 1955

Estate Bottled, H. Remy

An extraordinary example of great red Burgundy at modest cost.

227 SAVIGNY VERGELESSES 1955

Estate Bottled, R. Ampeau

From one of Savigny's great vineyards—a perfect Burgundy on the light side.

662 FIXIN, LES HERVELETS, 1955

Estate Bottled, P. Gelin

From the northernmost important wine producing village of the Cote d'Or. Has great distinction and breed, and a flavor that recalls that of the famous Chambertins, which are produced a few hundred yards farther south on the same slope.

324 NUITS ST. GEORGES, VAUCRAINS,

1955 Estate Bottled, Henri Gouges

The name of Henri Gouges on a bottle of Nuits guarantees the best of the township. Here is a remarkable 1955 that shows all of the signs of a long, prosperous future.

WHITE WINES

338 MEURSAULT PERIERES 1955

Estate Bottled, R. Ampeau

Distinguished example of great white Burgundy.

345 PULIGNY MONTRACHET, PUCELLES, 1956

Estate Bottled, R. Monnot

We were astonished when we tasted this 1956. Here is one of the best dry white wines of all France at truly low cost.

WHITE WINES

398 CHABLIS VAILLON 1955

Estate Bottled, M. Servin

A magnificent example of great estate bottled Chablis.

651 PULIGNY MONTRACHET, PERRIERES 1955

Estate Bottled, Sauzet

The white wines from Puligny are among the best of France. An impeccable example.

596 GEVREY CHAMBERTIN, COMBE AUX MOINES 1955

Estate Bottled, J. Baudot

A tremendous wine of great depth, vigor and balance.

590 POMMARD EOPENOTS 1955

Estate Bottled, Domaine Parent

A fabulous Pommard; magnificent for present drinking.

Several of the most remarkable vineyards of Europe appear in this category. You may choose a mixed case of any 12 of these glorious wines at the case price of $46.75.

RED WINES

320 CORTON BRESSANDES 1955

Estate Bottled, G. Yard

A fabulous wine—beautiful balance, exceptional delicacy combined with strength.

230 LATRICIERES CHAMBERTIN 1955

Estate Bottled, J. Remy

The authentic estate-bottled wines of the Chambertin area are among the hardest to obtain and the most expensive on earth. Here is an outstanding example, magnificently combining bouquet, flavor and power.

WHITE WINES

273 MEURSAULT, CLOS DES PERRIERES

1957, Estate Bottled, Grivault

Many authorities consider Clos des Perrieres (43 acres) the best single vineyard of Meursault. A consistent favorite among fanciers of white Burgundies.

399 CORTON CHARLEMAGNE 1955

Estate Bottled, Buisson La Rue

The white wines from the Corton Charlemagne vineyard are among the noblest of France, hard to come by, and can be classed with the great Montrachets.

653 BIENVENU, BATARD MONTRACHET, 1955 Estate Bottled, Sauzet

In our opinion, it is quite in the league with the best of the Montrachets.

Three great estate bottled thoroughbreds from the golden slopes of Burgundy, for a tasting adventure we suggest a case at $42.75.

RED WINES

323 CLOS DE TART 1952

Estate Bottled, Mommessin

Sturdy, slow maturing, one of the great red wines of Burgundy. Very few cases reached the United States.

243 NUITS ST. GEORGES, RICHEMONES, 1953

Estate Bottled, Moillard

A thoroughbred 1953. Beautifully exemplifies the deep, full bodied wines of Nuits St. Georges.

351 POMMARD EOPENOTS 1952

Estate Bottled, L. Poirier

The best vineyard of Pommard—nurtured to perfect maturation by the great grower Poirier.

The delights of famed Clos Vougeot vineyard—both their Red and White—are represented here. Suggest acquiring six bottles of each.

RED WINE

313 CLOS VOUGEOT 1953

Estate Bottled, Moillard

A classic red Burgundy from the Clos Vougeot vineyard—the largest and most famous Clos of Burgundy.

WHITE WINE

357 CLOS BLANC DE VOUGEOT 1957

Estate Bottled, Heretier-Guyot

A small portion of the Clos Vougeot vineyard, famous for its red wines, is dedicated to the production of this remarkable dry white wine. Extraordinary.

Europe's Most Remarkable Kirsch and Framboise

ON SALE

It is generally acknowledged that the best small distiller in Alsace is Alfred Hess. It is his 'alcools blancs' that are served in the great restaurants of France, such as the Restaurant de la Pyramide (Point) and Hotel de la Cote d'Or (Dumaine). Monsieur Hess lives at the foot of the Vosges Mountains, in a zone famous for its fruit, both cultivated (the plums called Quetschs and Mirabelles) and wild (the wild cherries for Kirsch and the wild raspberries for Framboise).

Only after several years of negotiations, was he finally persuaded to ship us a small quantity of his precious bottles, the best eaux-de-vie of all Alsace. Often served chilled, remarkable for their bouquet, these are among the most interesting and delightful of after dinner brandies—as such, perhaps the most highly regarded rivals of fine Cognac.

ALEXIS LICHINE SENDS US THE BEST OF BEAUJOLAIS AND POUILLY FUISSE IN THE CLASSIC "POT" BOTTLE —

Alexis Lichine, outstanding wine authority and author of "The Wines of France", reports that, "I tasted my way through southern Burgundy seeking out the best of the 1958 Beaujolais and Pouilly Fuisse... my search was limited to exceptional bottles... the 1958 Beaujolais and Pouilly that I am now shipping in the "Pot" bottle, are representative of the most delightful, freshest, fruitiest wines, that are produced in this important wine growing area."

RED WINES

646 FLEURIE, LES MORIERS, 1958 (Mousset)

M. Mousset's cellar is my text book ideal for Beaujolais—a delightful Beaujolais from fine vineyard, which ages extremely gracefully.

647 MOULIN A VENT, DOMAINE BURDELINES, 1958

A very well made wine—fat, round and full—possesses what the French call "race"—makes a very fine bottle—from best Beaujolais vineyard land.

WHITE WINES

648 BEAUJOLAIS BLANC 1958 (Thevenot)

Fine white Beaujolais, sensitive, well balanced—Mr. Thevenot's two vats won first prize among white Beaujolais at a recent wine festival—it is wine from these two vats that is being shipped in "Pot" to Sherry's.

650 POUILLY FUISSE, 1958

This very wine obtained a medal as one of the three best wines produced in Pouilly in 1958. Golden color with a hint of Emerald green—more body than average white Burgundy—a wine that should last well.

$16.95 CASE OF TWELVE

The "Pot"—a generous 17 oz. size, not quite as large as the regular bottle, but almost 50% larger than the half bottle.

Two classic gems from great Cote de Nuits vineyards. Choose any twelve bottles at $56.50 the case.

RED WINES

278 CHAMBERTIN 1955

Estate Bottled, Gen. Rebourseau

Here is "Le Grand Seigneur," a title that Chambertin carries gracefully. Amazing balance and fullness, classic distinction—the proudest of the red Burgundies.

691 MUSIGNY 1955 Estate Bottled, Hudelot

The magnificent wines of the Musigny vineyard are much sought-after throughout the world. In our opinion, this classic, velvety rarity will stand up against the noblest.

RED WINES

171 POMMARD, DAMES DE LA CHARITE, 1934

Hospice de Beaune

A great 1934 acquired over 20 years ago at the annual Hospice de Beaune auction. Sheer perfection.

M. de Villaine, the proprietor of Romanée-Conti, and our associate, Jack Aaron, after tasting the wines of the Domaine. These visits to the vineyards are part of our policy of keeping informed, first hand.

The wines of the "Domaine de la Romanée-Conti," because of their scarcity and magnificence, have always been collector's items among serious wine drinkers. We proudly offer two fine vintage years of '56 and '55, both eminently successful at the Domaine, and suggest acquisition before they disappear from the market.

Great Red Wines of Domaine de la Romanee-Conti

Two of the greatest white wine vineyards of the world are Mont-rachet and Berncasteler Doctor. They are hard to come by regardless of price. At $5.99, this is a unique opportunity not to be overlooked by those who want white wine at its absolute best.

WHITE WINE

336 GRAND MONTRACHET 1955

Estate Bottled, J. Bavard

The 'ne plus ultra' of all French white wines is Le Mont-rachet itself — an absolute maximum of 2000 cases a year is produced by this single 18 acre plot owned by a dozen proprietors. A glorious, much sought-after 1955.

MOSELLE WINE

513 BERNCASTELER DOCTOR SPATLESE 1957, Estate Bottled, Dr. H. Thanisch

Perhaps not as rich or sweet as 1953, but surely the equal in class and distinction.

204 LA ROMANEE 1953

This tiny two acre vineyard produces the 'ne plus ultra' of France's red wine. An irreplaceable treasure that merits present acquisition while our small inventory still remains.

288 LA ROMANEE 1952

The same great vineyard as above, but of the 1952 vintage.

15 MARCEL PERE ET FILS BRUT 1952 5.00 4.39 49.75

This fine dry example of Brut vintage Champagne from France deserves its reputation as New York's best Champagne value. We strongly urge that you buy now and anticipate your holiday entertaining.

155 AYALA GOLD LABEL BRUT 1953 6.95 4.99 56.50

Wine lists in the better restaurants of France and Europe proudly offer Ayala 1952. We have already been advised of a price increase for this vintage which will take effect after our present inventory is depleted.

33 FORTNUM & MASON ENGLISH MARKET BRUT 1952 7.00 5.49 61.50

A bone dry, vintage Champagne in the best tradition of the English Market. The clientele of Fortnum & Mason, attuned to good balance and extreme dryness, are particularly fond of this exceptional wine. Extraordinary value.

74 POMMERY & GRENO CUVEE ALBERT BRUT 5.99 68.50

The Cuvee Albert comprise the most treasured bottles that exist in the world famous cellars of Pommery & Greno. And with good reason — the birth of Albert, Marquis de Beaux, as the heir of Prince and Princess Rainier III called for a Champagne par excellence. Beautifully balanced, bone dry, Cuvee Albert Brut easily surpasses in quality many Champagnes that sell for 50% more the bottle — a happy choice for your own Holiday entertaining or gift giving. Also available in half bottles ($3.22) and Magnums $12.58).

156 MOET & CHANDON DOM PERIGNON BRUT 1949 11.35 122.58

We herald the arrival of the Dom Perignon 1949, one of the most remarkable Champagnes produced during our generation. The quota for the entire United States is pitifully small and of necessity is rationed. We know it will be in short supply during December so we suggest you anticipate your holiday needs now.

From SPAIN OF 4 Superb SALES Sherrries from the Cellars of Wisdom & Warter

"ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF WISDOM"

The name of Wisdom & Warter, now a century old, has been a familiar part of my upbringing for more years than I care to remember. It was my grandfather's custom to serve Wisdom's Fino or Amontillado each evening. I have recently retested each of these Sherries. I can only report that the high opinion held in my youth was entirely confirmed.

Candidly, I am quite convinced that this is one of the most unique opportunities since repeal to acquire Spain's very finest (not their ordinary) wines...these prices have been made possible only by a gigantic acquisition and the entire savings are being passed on to you. There is not a Sherry in the entire lot which would not be good value even if it sold for $3.00 the bottle, the average price that has prevailed for the wines of Wisdom & Warter during recent years.

S1 WISDOM'S FINO PALMA

A magnificent example of bone dry, pale, straw colored Sherry. This classic "Fino Palma" has helped Wisdom & Warter achieve its great international reputation, now a century old. An ideal aperitif when served slightly chilled. The equal of many Finos that command $3.00 or more the bottle.

S2 WISDOM'S ROYAL BROWN OLOROSO

There are few wines produced in the world that quite achieve the rich, deep flavor, or dark color depth of a fine Brown Sherry. Here is a typical, fully aged example. Highly recommended between meals with fruit, nuts or cake, or as an after-dinner dessert wine.

S3 WISDOM'S AMONTILLADO FINO

As this name implies, a good Amontillado belongs to the Fino family, but they acquire certain different characteristics as they mature; the color becomes more amber-like. As in the Finos, they are very dry, more nutty in flavor and develop greater body. Here is a perfect example of fine Amontillado that normally commands well over $3.00 the bottle.

S4 WISDOM'S GOLDEN CREAM

Generally speaking, a top-flight Cream Sherry such as this is the oldest and most luxurious of the wines found in the Bodegas of Jerez. Usually, a fine Cream Sherry of a reputable firm commands $5.00 or more the bottle. It is no ordinary event to obtain this medium dry, dramatically rich, wine for only $2.49. We urge that you try it.

WORLD'S GREATEST Collection of Authentic OLD VINTAGE

MUSEUM TREASURES CONSISTING OF
NEARLY EVERY YEAR FROM 1886 TO 1950

One of the noblest of the world's great wines is undoubtedly an authentic vintage port that has achieved its maturation, like fine still wine, in bottle rather than cask. Here is the greatest collection in the world—moved to our cellars in New York, bottle by bottle, from the private port museum that Richard Hooper & Sons have maintained in their country house for almost a century. Honored guests at their home were asked the date of their birth or anniversary and a vintage port of that year was served.

In a small personal way, you can follow the same thoughtful practice. We suggest sending, as an imaginative birthday or anniversary gift, authentic vintage port proudly bearing on its label 'THE YEAR.' And do not overlook the possibilities of sending as the most individual of Christmas gifts, a bottle of port that bears the year of his birth, anniversary, or any other special event.

If you have not yet experienced the vinous joy of bottle-aged authentic vintage port, we strongly advise that you acquire some for your own pleasure.

A list of more recent years—1941 to 1950—is available on Page 22.
